

Information about your Temporary Voter Authority Certificate

- You can use this certificate to prove who you are when voting in person at the polling station. This certificate is not valid for any other purpose.
- Only you can use this Temporary Voter Authority Certificate.
- This is a temporary document. It is only valid for use on the date specified or, in the case of a Recall Petition, until the last date for signing the petition.
- Your application for a permanent Voter Authority Certificate has been approved and the certificate will be sent to you at the address where you are registered to vote. You do not need to re-apply for a permanent Voter Authority Certificate.