

Information about your Elector's Document

- You must use this document to prove who you are when voting in person at a polling station.
- You cannot use any other form of photo ID to vote in person.
- You must also take your poll card with you to vote and show this to polling station staff with your Elector's Document.
- If this document gets lost or damaged, you should apply for a new one.
- You will need to reapply for an Elector's Document each time you renew your registration.
